Alma Property Partners completes third acquisition in Denmark

Alma Property Partners acquires 15 apartments and 8 commercial units in Valby, Denmark. The transaction is the third residential transaction in Denmark for Alma's opportunistic fund.

The property comprises approximately 3,500 sqm of leasable area and it was acquired from a private Danish investor by Alma's pan-Nordic opportunistic real estate fund.

"The Valby property is another add-on acquisition to our portfolio of modern apartments in attractive locations in the greater Copenhagen area. We have now acquired over 100 apartments in greater Copenhagen and we still see pockets of value in the market," says Alexander Thams, Director at Alma Property Partners.

Colliers was the seller's advisor in the transaction. Accura was the legal advisor to the buyer.
